
CURRICULUM VITAE

Xiaorong Zhou

Cell #: 404-441-4254

Email: Redxzzx@langate.gsu.edu

Address: P.O.Box 4020

Department of Real Estate, Georgia State University

Atlanta, Ga 30302-4020

Education Background:

Georgia State University, Robinson College of Business, U.S.A

- Ph.D. Candidate in Real Estate, 12/2008

Sichuan University, Chengdu, China

- Master in Economics with concentration in Real Estate Economics, 07/2003

Sichuan University, Chengdu, China

- Bachelor in Economics with concentration in Real Estate Administration & Management, 07/2000

Honors & Awards:

- John H. Cowart scholarship recipient in 2004 & 2006 & 2008
- E. A. Isakson Scholarship recipient in 2005
- Industrial Development Research Council Scholarship recipient in 2007

Teaching Experience:

- Real Estate Principle, Georgia State University
 - An average of 50 undergraduate students
 - Fall, 2007 & Spring 2008
- Argus software seminar, Georgia State University
 - Argus is a financial analysis tool widely used in American real estate industry
 - Initiated the Argus seminar in 2006, and it now becomes a every semester routine in Real Estate Department, Georgia State University
 - Train average 30 people from Georgia State University and real estate industry every semester

- Design real estate evaluation and cash flow projection cases

Working Paper & Reports:

- “An Investigation into REIT Performance Persistency”, 2007
- “The Greens at Brookhaven --- a Proposed Mixed-Use Development”, National Association of Industrial and Office Properties (NAIOP) School Challenge Competition Georgia State University Team, 2007
- “Conservation District Impact on Owner Occupied Single-Family Value –A Case Study from Dallas”, 2005